Debbie Nelson & Associates Welcomes Two Interns

Greenville, SC (September 21, 2007)- Debbie Nelson and Associates (DNA) has added Kimberly Perry, of Newtown, PA, and JB Tharp, of Fort Mill, SC, as interns.

Perry returns to DNA after interning in Fall 2006. Perry, a senior and Dean's List student, is pursuing a Bachelor of Science degree in Marketing and a minor in Spanish at Clemson University and plans on graduating in December 2007. Kimberly is actively involved with the Greenville chapter of the Leukemia & Lymphoma Society. Tharp, a senior at Furman University, is majoring Philosophy with a minor in Public Relations. Tharp is an active member of Association of Students in Communications, Conservative Students for a Better Tomorrow, and Sovereign Grace Church.

Their responsibilities at DNA include writing press releases, developing marketing plans, copy editing, and various other administrative duties. The internship program will enhance Perry, and Tharp's marketing skills, especially in the areas of Public Relations, Special Event Planning and Advertising.

DNA specializes in developing and implementing marketing and public relations campaigns for businesses in Upstate South Carolina, and was awarded the 2005 Greenville Chamber of Commerce Small Business of the Year Award. Areas of expertise include government agencies, financial institutions, medical practices and homebuilders.
