Debbie Nelson & Associates Welcomes Two New Staff Members

Greenville, SC (June 25, 2007)- Debbie Nelson and Associates (DNA) has added two new members to its staff. Emily Kosa, of Greenville SC, has been named public relations assistant. In May, she graduated Magna Cum Laude from Clemson University with a Bachelor of Arts in Communications with a minor in Psychology and a Bachelor of Arts in Modern Languages (Spanish). Kosa was the president of Lambda Pi Eta, the honors society of the National Communication Association, and served as the secretary of Sigma Alpha Lambda, a national leadership and honors organization. She has completed three internships, including Artisphere: The International Arts Festival of Greenville and Clemson University's Littlejohn Coliseum.

Whitney Howell, of Greenville SC, returns to DNA for a second summer as an intern. Howell, a rising senior at the University of South Carolina and a Dean's list student, is pursuing a bachelor's degree in Public Relations with a minor in Psychology. She is vice president of Epsilon Sigma Alpha, a community service sorority.

DNA specializes in developing and implementing marketing and public relations campaigns for businesses in Upstate South Carolina, and was awarded the 2005 Greenville Chamber of Commerce Small Business of the Year Award. Areas of expertise include government agencies, financial institutions, medical practices and homebuilders. For more information, please call 864-235-0959 or visit www.debbienelsonandassociates.com.
