DNA Employee Participates in the Greenville Chamber's Opportunity Greenville

Greenville, SC (April 16, 2009) – Emily Kosa, Account Executive at DNA Creative Communications (DNA), recently completed the Greenville Chamber of Commerce's Opportunity Greenville program. The six-week series gave members a comprehensive view of the inner-workings of Greenville, with a particular focus on government, economy, culture and history. Each session featured various community leaders, who gave presentations and fostered discussion among participants about issues relating to Greenville and how they can get involved in the community. The program offered excellent networking opportunities, as well as valuable resources to aid participants in serving the Greenville area.
