Dana Morgan joins Furman University's Connections Board

Greenville, S.C. (January 25, 2010)—Dana Morgan, Account Manager at DNA Creative Communications (DNA) was recently appointed to the board for Furman University's Connection: Women Leaders of the Upstate Program. Morgan will be one of the two new advisory board members for the upcoming three year term whom govern the program.

A graduate of the Connections program in April 2009, Morgan joined a select, diverse group of approximately 30 other women in the Upstate for six rigorous events. Furman University sponsors this premier leadership development program, Connections, intended to connect women in the community who possess both proven and potential leadership abilities. Currently in its twelfth year, Connections provides a unique opportunity for women to network and develop their leadership potential.
