Debbie Nelson Participates in Leadership South Carolina

Greenville, SC (October 1, 2010) – Debbie Nelson, principal of DNA Creative Communications, was one of approximately fifty-five participants selected to participate in Leadership South Carolina. Participants were selected based on their demonstrated abilities as a leader and their past record of service in leadership roles. Nelson will attend six sessions to learn about pertinent issues facing South Carolina involving natural resources, education, the economy, as well as social and health issues.

Leadership South Carolina has been one of the most respected leadership programs statewide since being founded in 1979 by the Governor’s Office and South Carolina business community. Participants have the opportunity to advance their leadership qualities and learn about issues facing South Carolina through presentations, panels, and experiential learning.
