Two Debbie Nelson & Associates Employees Become Certified Agency Account Managers

Greenville, S.C. (November 13, 2008) – Debbie Nelson & Associates, LLC (DNA) is proud to announce that Emily Kosa and Whitney Howell have become Certified Agency Account Managers. Both employees recently attended Second Wind's Certified Account Executive College in Atlanta, GA for a 3-day seminar on topics pertaining to Account Management.

On September 23-25, the training sessions commenced at the Grand Hyatt in Buckhead, GA. Each day covered a different topic including: A Complete Guide to Service Account, Account Planning and Strategic Planning, and Writing Winning Proposals and Giving Winning Pitches. Each seminar was designed to cover a different aspect of account managing followed by a certification exam.

About Second Wind:

Second Wind is the world's leading trainer of advertising agency people. They have trained over 15,000 agency professionals over the past 20 years. They offer multiple certifications that cover account management, agency operations, and agency financial management.
